Mark Taylor Design to showcase beautiful bespoke furniture and design expertise at Pub in the Park

Mark Taylor Design is renowned for creating distinctive, bespoke furniture and joinery that transform clients' homes into truly extraordinary spaces

Prestigious furniture manufacturer and interior design specialist Mark Taylor Design is giving visitors to the first Pub in the Park festival in May the chance to feast their eyes on some of its beautiful, bespoke furniture. Joining some of the UK's best chefs, Mark Taylor Design will be exhibiting at the festival in its home-town of Marlow on 19th to 21st May with a 4m by 4m stand. This will also give visitors the chance to experience the company's bespoke interior design expertise for themselves.

Tickets for the event, hosted by Michelin-star, celebrity chef Tom Kerridge and billed as a 'celebration of the very best food, drink and music', have already sold out and 14,000 people from Marlow and the surrounding area are expected to visit Higginson Park over the three days.

Mark Taylor Design's stand will be perfectly placed in a prime location near to the chef demonstration area where a line-up of celebrity chefs will be treating visitors to culinary masterpieces. Visitors to the stand will experience beautiful, bespoke furniture that demonstrates this British manufacturer's incredible attention to detail and see a stunning selection of inspirational mood boards, created by Mark Taylor Design's Interior Design division. Examples of some of the exclusive projects that Mark Taylor Design has completed over the last 20 years will also be on display and members of Mark Taylor Design's team will be available to provide expert advice and an insight into their work.

Managing Director Mark Taylor says: "We're thrilled to be showcasing examples of our bespoke cabinetry and interior design and supporting the first Pub in the Park festival, which is set to become an unmissable event in Marlow's calendar. We are being supported by our friends at FutureAV*, whose AV equipment will be on display and Domus, who have supplied us with flooring for our stand."
