Mark Taylor Design ends 20th anniversary year with launch of new e-commerce shop

The first pieces available to buy through the Mark Taylor Design Online Shop include this Aged Bronze Framed Bookcase, £2,000, left, Blue Velvet Camel Back Sofa, £2,760, top right, Oak Console Table, £2,880 and Yellow Ochre Camel Back Sofa, £2,100, bottom right

Mark Taylor Design, the prestigious British manufacturer of superlative bespoke furniture, cabinetry and specialist joinery, is giving customers across the UK the opportunity to purchase beautifully crafted furniture with the launch of its new online shop.

The Mark Taylor Design Online Shop went live in December 2017 and features five initial bespoke pieces, which are also available to order to a client's exact specifications*. The launch of the online shop is the perfect culmination of Mark Taylor Design's 20th anniversary year, which also saw this renowned British manufacturer unveil a new, contemporary brand identity and open an interior design studio at its Buckinghamshire HQ.

Highlighting Mark Taylor Design's manufacturing expertise and vast experience of working with innovative materials, the Oak Console Table with liquid metal finish features a grained timber top, which was created by taking a moulding from a fire treated oak plank. It also boasts a beautiful integrated bowl that is ideal for storing keys. Other highlights include two stunning Camel Back Sofas and the Aged Bronze Framed Bookcase. Completing the initial line-up of products now available is a beautiful 400-year-old English Walnut Coffee Table with integrated bowl and liquid metal edge. It features a water clear resin finish, which ensures each of the tree's growth rings is visible.

Managing Director Mark Taylor says: "We've designed many bespoke pieces, which have been much admired, over our 20-year history and we felt now was the right time to offer others the chance to have access to individual, bespoke pieces designed exclusively by Mark Taylor Design."
